

REGISTER NOW!

LERA 67th Annual Meeting

May 28-31, 2015, Pittsburgh, PA

50 sessions focus on the evolution of workplace relations from all perspectives: labor, management, government, policy makers, arbitrators, and mediators. LERA specializes in connecting all stakeholders with research and experiences from in the workplace.

Featured Plenary Speakers

Ron Bloom—Formerly an Assistant to President Obama for Manufacturing Policy, Bloom is now a senior adviser to Lazard Frères & Co. The company guided discussions with the Administration and the auto industry, resulting in new fuel economy standards and the Advanced Manufacturing Partnership. Bloom helped restructure General Motors and Chrysler, and led the Treasury's involvement with GM's IPO.

Leo Gerard—As a United Steelworkers President and AFL-CIO Vice President, Gerard focused the United Steelworkers on strategic contract bargaining in paper, steel, rubber and other key sectors. He also fought unfair trade and gained clout through political action and alliances.

Federal Mediation & Conciliation Services Training

- How Technology and Labor Relations May Work Together
- The New Generation of Alternative Bargaining Models
- The Case Study of Elliott Turbine and the Steelworkers
- Labor Dispute Systems Design and Capacity Building Abroad
- Dealing with Complex EEO Issues and Workplace Complaints

Union/Management Panels Featuring UAW/Ford

- James (Jimmy) Settles, Jr., UAW National Ford Department
- Bill Dirksen, Ford Motor Co.